Dear Mr. Kosaku Yada,

I am trying to bring about some change in my community, but at times I feel overpowered because of my background. I have no connections on earth whatsoever.

I am humbly requesting the Smith Family Circle to accept me as your protege, a friend, and as someone who is under your guidance.

My name is Anthony, a farmer in a remote part of eastern Uganda. Every farmer in my region, including myself, lives in extreme poverty. But my goal is to change the bigger picture: the underlying causes of poverty in our region.

I really believe I can do just that, if the Smith Family Circle accepted me as a friend. I am humbly asking you to let me in your life.

To learn about my vision for stemming the cycle of poverty in my region, please see a campaign that I recently created: <http://citizencall.org>

Also, please learn about my project, the UCF: <http://ugandafarm.org/about>

I would be very humbled if you could accept me as a friend.

Best regards,

Anthony Kalulu,

Founder, UCF
